
CW Special Dispatch | Oh, what a night

From The Crimson White <managingeditor@cw.ua.edu>

Date Tue 1/12/2021 7:29 AM

To Leah Goggins <imgoggins@crimson.ua.edu>

View this email in your browser

Special Dispatch

Tuesday, January 12, 2021

Hi. We're national champions.

A season unlike any other came to an end in Miami, where the Crimson Tide dominated the Ohio State Buckeyes to the tune of a 52-24 final score. Heisman winner Devonta Smith continued his record-breaking streak before being sidelined in the second half. Christian Barmore got his due, Slade Bolden made his mark and Najee Harris went out in style. You can read about it all in this special edition.

This College Football Playoff win makes 18 national titles to the University's name and seven to Nick Saban's. CW / Hannah Saad & Tomia Teague

The Crimson White is back and ready to give you all the Landon-Dickerson-carrying-Nick-Saban-off-the-field-esque content you desire. Read our National Championship Edition flipbook or enjoy all the stories on our website.

We won. Alexander Plant breaks down the joyous win that saw fan favorites like senior center Landon Dickerson and junior wide receiver Jaylen Waddle get back in the game.

Steve Sarkisian, you will be missed. Read about the offensive coordinator's landmark season here.

They don't make Heisman winners humbler than Devonta Smith. Even without accolades on his mind, the senior wide receiver became the most impressive player of the college football season.

Alabama's big three have had a season like no other. Always more than willing to deflect praise back onto their teammates, Najee Harris, Mac Jones and Smith have proved to be peerless team leaders.

The University's 18th national title tacks on more fond memories to the already impressive Saban-era championship highlight reel. Ashlee Woods details her favorites in a remembrance of championships past.

[cw.ua.edu]

Copyright © 2020 The Crimson White Media Group, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.